and sanctioned in the first instance. The amount deposited in the Savings Bank being merely the collections raised by subscriptions from the devotees in the Maddur town and surrounding villages, the work seems to have been put in hand on their own responsibility as per Mahazar drawn up on the 25th February 1904.

2 After the completion of the work the devotees having applied to withdraw the amount to be disbursed to the contractor, they were prohibited from doing so in accordance with Govt. Pro: no. 2165-74 dated the 28th January 1904 and the Savings Bank account was transferred to the name of the Deputy Commissioner, for the time being. As the work was reported to have been completed several months back, the measurement bill was called for and submitted for sanction.

3. An estimate has however now now been forwarded for formal sanction and it is requested that the same may be kindly san-
